COMMODORE'S CORNER

The year started off with a great general membership meeting in January. It was hosted by our outgoing Commodore Bill White and his wife Carole. Ethan Salter gave a great presentation on voyaging in the San Juans in small open boats using only sails and oars.

Our Vice Commodore Jerry Hancock has more interesting presentations lined up for our upcoming meetings. Remember the February gathering is a catered affair at the Islander. So be sure to send in your reservations and $$'s with the form attached in the newsletter.

This is a good time to give a great big "MAHALO" to Bill Diller and the staff at the Islander Resort for taking good care of us throughout the year.

VERY IMPORTANT! Also, in this newsletter we've included a survey orchestrated by the Board to ascertain the true pulse and desires of the membership. Spend a little time to reflect on what you enjoy about the Club and how your responses might help us keep it on the best course. The cruising portion of the survey will be helpful to Rear Commodore Diana Hancock in planning our summertime events. You may include your responses when you mail in your dinner reservations, or send them in separately, or Judy might have developed a way for you to respond using the club's website (<http://www.lopezislandyachtclub.com>). Feel free to also comment on other issues you feel important.

It's February, so I know some of you are away having some alpine fun, some are at the Olympics in B.C., and others are seeking warmer climates. If you're not here on Lopez, have all the FUN you can without us. Those of us still here—let's make some fun ourselves!

Remember it will soon be light out—even after 6 pm.

Oh, Boy!

Dave

BoatU.S. CONTINUES TO OFFER LIYC MEMBER BENEFITS

During the last year, 11 of our members enjoyed BoatU.S. membership at $15.00—just half of the regular annual $30 dues rate. That's because LIYC joined with BoatU.S. as a cooperating partner to offer a wide range of benefits including towing, discounts on cruises and travel services, free magazine subscriptions, access to boat and boat equipment manufacturer recalls, market analysis of individual boats helpful to both buyers and sellers, discounts at West Marine and area marinas, and many more.

If you're not taking advantage of this boating bargain, sign up at the next general membership meeting or email Shanley Lett at lettos@rockisland.com to received an application. You'll be glad you did!

JANUARY'S GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING was a well attended potluck and featured an informative, entertaining presentation by Ethan Salter on a program for Lopez kids using boats powered only by oars and sails. Dick Behan won $44 in the 50/50 drawing and promptly announced he'd be donating it to the Haitian Relief Fund.

Jerry and Diana Hancock made their pitch for meeting and cruise hosts for 2010. Hosting the meetings is fun and easy. Basically, it consists of decorating the dinner tables (and many of the decorations the yacht club already has) and then greeting the members as they arrive.

It's a great way to get to know members you may not have had the pleasure of meeting in the past.

(Oh, and there is also removing of the decorations after the meeting, but there are usually lots of willing helpers.)
